

PROCLAMATION

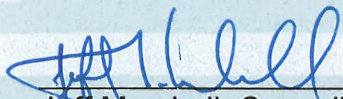

WHEREAS, Bill Brod, a caring and dedicated Milwaukie citizen and businessman throughout his lifetime, passed away on July 5, 2000; and

WHEREAS, Bill, the chief executive officer for one of Milwaukie's largest employers Brod & McClung-Pace, consistently found the time to share his expertise by volunteering on various local and regional advisory boards and planning groups; and

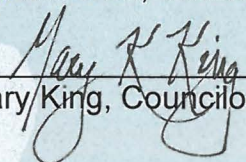

WHEREAS, Bill shared his business success by making personal donations and enthusiastically contributing his time and energy to public parks and open space programs, the North Clackamas Aquatic Park, Clackamas Community College, CCI Enterprises, and other local organizations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Carolyn Tomei, Mayor of the City of Milwaukie, Oregon, do hereby memorialize the wonderful work accomplished by Bill Brod for his community by sharing this proclamation with you. I ask all citizens to reflect upon the graciousness, commitment to community, and generosity Bill showed us during his lifetime.
