

The following liquor applications for 1960 were presented:

Murray E. Bunn, Hub Grocery, PA
 W. B. Seid, Seid's Restaurant, DB
 E. M. Manwiller, Curly's Cash Grocery, PA
 E. E. & Vivian Morgan, Premium Market, PB

It was moved by Faust, seconded by Brown, that the above applications be approved.

Ayes: Brown, Faust.

Nays: None.

The Manager brought up the matter of the possibility of purchasing a police car and a water department truck. He stated that he had been advised by various dealers that they would not bid due to the inability of getting new cars because of the steel strike, and the shortage of 1959 models. This is to be reviewed at a later date.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Ayes: Laurs, Brown, Faust.      Nays: None.

There was discussion regarding removal of old, useless or diseased trees from parking areas. It was suggested that we cooperate with the Portland General Electric Company and try the removal and replanting of trees in one area.

Discussion was held regarding the routing of large gasoline tanker trucks travelling steep hills in Oregon City. Commissioner Brown suggested that the Fire Chief contact the major oil companies to see if they would cooperate on a voluntary basis and use suggested routes for their large tankers.

A letter was read from William R. Perrin, Clackamas County Labor Council, regarding appointment of Civil Service Commission. The Commission requested a letter be written to Mr. Perrin stating that it would consider their recommendation at the time of the next appointment to the Civil Service Commission.

Commissioner Faust brought up the matter of an old, hazardous sidewalk on Jackson Street between 5th and 6th. Discussion was held.

The Attorney presented some sample incinerator ordinances to be discussed at a later date.

The Attorney was requested to draw up an ordinance to allow the hanging of Christmas decorations across Main Street and, due to the fact that the Chamber committee decided not to hang decorations across Main Street, the matter was tabled.

There was a discussion regarding annexation of the Cemetery and Kelly Field property. It was suggested by Commissioner Brown that we check with the property owners along Abernathy Road which would be included in Kelly Field annexation to ascertain if they wished to be annexed at this time.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned to December 11, 1959, at 12:00 noon.
