

Section 3. Whereas, the commission of Oregon City has found that the conditions were dangerous to the health and safety of the people of Oregon City and it was necessary to improve the streets and sewer, and have let contracts for the immediate improvement of the streets and sewer, and whereas, the said streets were in such a condition that the improvement of said streets and sewer was necessary for the preservation of the health and safety of Oregon City and the public, that it is necessary to provide funds for the continuance of the improvements thereof, and the said continuance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the health and safety of the public, in the judgment of the commission of Oregon City, an emergency exists, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its approval by the mayor.

Read first time and ordered published at a special meeting of the city commission held on the 14th day of February, 1930, and to come up for second reading and final passage at a special meeting of the city commission to be held on the 24th day of February, 1930, at the hour of one o'clock p.m.

H. WESTPHAL, City Recorder.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.
