

PROCLAMATION

Honoring the fallen Police Reserve Officer Robert Libke of Oregon City, Oregon and supporting the City of Oregon City as it heals from this terrible tragedy

- The City of Oregon City, Oregon has suffered an unfathomable loss with the recent murder of its Reserve Police Officer, Robert Libke.
- Fallen Officer Libke served the citizens of Oregon City as a most valuable public servant since 2009.
- Law Enforcement is an honorable, hard-working profession that diligently seeks to make our communities more livable.
- There is no greater sacrifice an Officer can make for their community than to give their life.
- The murder of a Police Officer shocks the soul of a community and the very freedoms the Officers have sworn to protect.
- The impact of this tragedy upon the Officer's family, friends, department and community is immeasurable.

THEREFORE, as the Mayor of the City of Ashland, along with the City Council, and the citizens of Ashland, I do hereby extend heartfelt condolences to Officer Libke's family and friends, and the City of Oregon City, Oregon. We mourn the loss of a valuable public servant, and pray for healing and hope in this time of need.

Dated this 19th day of November, 2013

John Stromberg, Mayor

Barbara Christensen, City Recorder
