

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, in the family we learn our first lessons of God and man, love and discipline, rights and responsibilities, human dignity and human frailty; and

WHEREAS, our families give us daily examples of these lessons being put into practice. In raising and instructing our children; in providing personal and compassionate care for the elderly; in bringing the handicapped into the mainstream of community life; in maintaining the spiritual strength of religious commitment among our people. America's families make immeasurable contributions to America's well-being; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that official recognition be given to the importance of family loyalties and ties as essential ingredients to the continued strength and well-being of our cities and our nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, KENNETH M. MITCHELL, Mayor of the City of Oregon City, hereby proclaim the week of November 20 - 26, 1988, as:

FAMILY WEEK

in Oregon City and urge all family members to join together to strengthen their home life through devotion, love, understanding and the enjoyment of working and living as a family unit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 2nd day of November, 1988.

KENNETH M. MITCHELL, Mayor
