EXHIBIT "A"

Section 14.28.020 Nonconforming sign.

A. Time Limit.

1. Nonconforming signs may be continued for a period of ten years from the effective date of the ordinance codified in this chapter.

2. Signs located on premises annexed into the city after the effective date of the ordinance codified in this chapter, and which signs do not comply with the provisions of this chapter, shall be brought into compliance with this chapter within a period of seven years after the effective date of the annexation.

3. Any sign which is structurally altered, relocated or replaced shall immediately be brought into compliance with all of the provisions of this chapter.

4. Signs in existence on the effective date of the ordinance codified in this chapter which do not comply with provisions regulating flashing signs, use of par spot lights or revolving beacons, revolving signs, or flags, banners, or streamers or strings of lights, temporary or incidental signs, shall be made to conform within ninety days from the effective date of the ordinance codified in this chapter.

B. Notice Given. The city manager or duly authorized representative shall give thirty days' written notice to the owner or lessee of the sign to remove the sign and its supporting structures or to bring it into compliance with this chapter. (Ord. 1733 § 1(1)(Exh. A) (part), 1993)
