

PROCLAMATION

JUNE 21, 2012 – DAVID WIMMER DAY

Whereas, in February 1994, David Wimmer was hired as Finance Director at the City of Oregon City, a Charlie Leeson recruit; and

Whereas, David has served diligently, enthusiastically, efficiently & effectively; and

Whereas, although he speaks with a foreign tongue (numbers), he has brought the City through financially challenging times and made his indelible mark in stabilizing our budget; and

Whereas, he has contributed professionally among the people in our community through the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, and many other volunteer endeavors; and

Whereas, even though David's outstanding civic activities take up an enormous amount of his time, he remains devoted to his family; and

Whereas, David is leaving Oregon City financially stable, economically more robust, and with a balanced budget; and

Whereas, his intelligence, historical knowledge, wit and wisdom will be missed, as well as his entertaining stories; and

Whereas, Oregon City is a better and more livable community because David served as our Finance Director; and

Whereas, the leadership of our great City will miss the active participation of David in the day-to-day affairs of the City and the region.

Now, Therefore, I, Doug Neeley, Mayor of the City of Oregon City, City staff, and the citizens of Oregon City offer our best wishes for a long, happy and productive retirement to David Wimmer, and do proclaim

David Wimmer Day

And, urge all citizens and staff to express their appreciation for the many positive contributions David has made to the City of Oregon City, but wine, food and lavish attention are also appreciated.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 20th day of June 2012.

DOUG NEELEY, Mayor
