

PROCLAMATION

JANUARY 4, 2017 – ROCKY SMITH, JR. DAY

Whereas, in January 2009, Rocky Smith Jr. recited his oath of office as City Commissioner position #2 at the City of Oregon City; and

Whereas, Rocky has served diligently, enthusiastically, efficiently & effectively; and

Whereas, although he reaches souls far beyond the living (with his ghost tours), he has brought the City through many challenging times and made his indelible mark in Oregon City historical preservation; and

Whereas, he has contributed professionally among the people in our community through the Chamber of Commerce, the School District, and many other volunteer endeavors; and

Whereas, even though Rocky's outstanding civic activities take up an enormous amount of his time, he remains devoted to his family and friends; and

Whereas, Rocky is leaving Oregon City Commission, economically more robust, and with a better plan for tourism and historical landmarks; and

Whereas, his intelligence, historical knowledge, wit and wisdom will be missed, as well as his entertaining stories; and

Whereas, Oregon City is a better and more livable community because Rocky served our community on the City Commission; and

Whereas, the leadership of our great City will miss the active participation of Rocky in the City Commission capacity, but know he will continue to contribute in other ways.

Now, Therefore, I, Dan Holladay, Mayor of the City of Oregon City, do proclaim

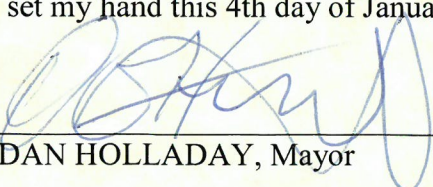

January 4, 2017

As

Rocky Smith, Jr. Day

And, urge all community members, family and friends to express their appreciation for the many positive contributions Rocky has given to them and the City of Oregon City, but wine, food, and lavish attention are also appreciated.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 4th day of January 2017

DAN HOLLADAY, Mayor
