

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and

Whereas, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and

Whereas, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

Whereas, public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists... train conductors and astronauts... nurses and safety inspectors... laborers, computer technicians and social workers... and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

Whereas, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

Whereas, the City Commission of Oregon City would like to especially recognize and thank all the employees of the City for their hard work and dedication every day.

Now, Therefore, I, Dan Holladay, Mayor of the City of Oregon City, do proclaim

May 7 – 13, 2017

as

Public Service Recognition Week

And, encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county and city.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 3rd day of May, 2017.

DAN HOLLADAY, Mayor
