

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the Boy Scouts of America has been at the forefront of instilling timeless values in youth since its founding in 1910; and

Whereas, the Boy Scouts of America is committed to helping millions of youth thrive by providing the support, friendship, and guidance necessary to live a happy and rewarding life; and

Whereas, one of the major objectives in the Scouting program is to develop responsible citizenship, character development and self-reliance through participation in a wide range of activities; and

Whereas, Boy Scout Troop 220 located here in Oregon City is recognized as the oldest Boy Scouts of America Troop in the Cascade Pacific Council; and

Whereas, Boy Scout Troop 220 is celebrating 100 consecutive years as a continually Chartered Boy Scout Troop; and

Now, Therefore, I, Dan Holladay, Mayor of the City of Oregon City, do proclaim:

June 23, 2018

as

Boy Scouts of America Troop 220 Day

And, express the appreciation of our citizens to the Cascade Pacific Council and the Boy Scouts of America Troop 220 for their interest in and the dedication to America's youth and encourage Oregon City citizens to celebrate this milestone anniversary with Troop 220 at their Open House (held at the VFW Post 1324, 104 Tumwater Drive, Oregon City, OR 970456), Saturday, June 23, 2018, 12 pm – 6 pm.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 20th day of June, 2018.

DAN HOLLADAY, Mayor
