

MEETING OF NOVEMBER 19, 1957

The Milwaukie Planning Commission met for its regular monthly meeting on the nineteenth day of November, 1957.

Having held a special meeting of the Commission, on the fifteenth day of November, 1957, to take care of the regular business, the meeting of this evening was planned to be devoted to attending a meeting of the Friends of the Library, where the members of the Planning Commission and the City Council were to be honored guests.

Following a brief stay with the Friends of the Library, the Planning Commission journeyed to Gladstone where they were guests of the Gladstone Planning Commission for a general discussion on matters of particular interest to both Commissions.
