

SPECIAL MEETING OF JULY 30, 1964

A special meeting of the Milwaukie Planning Commission, scheduled for a hearing on the question of a zone change, was not followed through because there was not a quorum of appoinive members present.

Those present were Chairman Roger Hollingsworth, Commissioners David Strauss, John O. Sheldahl, Jerry Miller, Joseph M. Bernard, John O. Sheldahl and Max Thompson. Absent: Earl Burdick, Cecil Nickles, W. Henry Stewart and Max Baer.

The citizens present were informed that the notice of the hearing had not been published as required. The Clerk showed that the notice had been sent to the Milwaukie Review on July 13 and was to have been published on July 22 and 29. The citizens present were informed that the Commission would hold the hearing on these zone changes along with other scheduled hearings, on August 13, and invited them to attend.

Chairman Hollingsworth announced that inasmuch as there was not a quorum of appointed members present, no other business would be brought up.

The meeting adjourned.

David Strauss, Secretary

ATTEST:

Ellen Martin, Clerk.
