WHEREAS, a long time ago in a galaxy far, far away, the heroic Rebel Alliance won a great victory against the evil Galactic Empire, and

WHEREAS, the noble Jedi Knights, once hunted to near extinction by the Sith, were able to restore balance to the Force and bring peace to the Galaxy, and

WHEREAS, the residents of Oregon City strive to clear our minds and allow the Force to surround us, to flow through us, and bind us all together, lest the power of the Dark Side seduces us and forever dominates our destiny, and

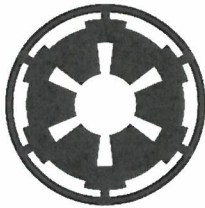

WHEREAS, the residents of Oregon City shall always remain vigilant against a resurgent Empire, First Order, or Sith and safeguard against the construction of a third Death Star, the gathering of a new Star Destroyer fleet, or the establishment of a second clone army,

I, Commission President McGriff, raise my lightsaber and do hereby proclaim

May 4, 2022

Star Wars Day

AND encourage all Oregon City residents to celebrate this momentous occasion. May the Fourth be with you.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my L-hand 980 this 4th day of May 2022.
