Fund: Park Development (SDC) 611
Department: Parks and Recreation
Program: Parks Development (SDC) 601

Description/Mission:

Provide additional capacity and increase park facilities and resources within the Oregon City Urban Growth Boundary so the community benefits from parks, green spaces, trails and active recreational facilities. Oregon City Municipal Code defines qualified projects. The Capital Improvement Plan and the Park and Recreation Master Plan identify and prioritize projects that are eligible for SDC funding. Planning for growth related system improvements is also considered eligible for SDC funding.

2005-06 Goals, Projects, and Highlights

- Complete remainder of Jon Storm Park development
- Willamette River Trail development first phase (Clackamette-Jon Storm Park)
- Continue to investigate funds for park and trail construction
- Continue to investigate property to add to parks & Greenspaces inventory
- Convert Rivercrest wading pool to spray park
- Secure grant funding and implement Canemah Park/Metro property Site Plan
- Identify funding to complete Wesley Lynn Park development (phase 2)

2004-05 Accomplishments/Comments

- Trails Master Plan completion
- Clackamas River Trail development completion
- Jon Storm Park Master Plan completion
- Completion of Jon Storm Transient Dock construction
- Awarded bid and completion of Jon Storm Park restroom facility
- Wesley Lynn Park phase 1 construction completed
- Canemah Neighborhood Park Master Plan completed

Major Issues to be Resolved in the Next 5 Years

- Locate and purchase park property of sufficient size to support active recreational needs of the community
- Increased maintenance budget to maintain parks and trails as they are developed through SDC funds.

Subject: West Linn Parks & Regional Parks Conversation??

Dear Oregon City Parks & Recreation Advisory Board:

I'm on the West Linn Parks & Recreation Advisory Board and am one of the newest members. We are amidst the process of updating our Master Plan and I'm curious about what other cities in our area are working toward and how they are doing it. Because our cities are so nearby, I frequently run into Oregon City folks in our parks and yet I haven't made the effort to find out more about your parks and your upcoming plans. I'd like to find out more from anyone interested in discussing our regions parks and how we manage them.

One of the exciting things we are working on in West Linn is starting the Willamette River Trail. Phase one will hopefully be under construction this summer and will run from the mouth of the Tualatin River toward the falls as close as possible (we think we can get a viewing platform that will actually have a view of the falls. Ultimately, we envision the trail extending north through parks, easements, and a few neighborhood streets until it connects with Lake Oswego's trails. I'm curious about an integrated vision with the historic trails system that Oregon City offers. I think the whole vision could be that much more amazing if a good walking path across the old bridge could connect folks to the Oregon City system too.

One of the other items we are trying to understand is what population have we not served with our parks. I wonder if at certain parks or events you are running into West Linn residents, seeking amenities that your park system offers? (I run into Oregon City folks at our dog park at Mary S. Young). Our unscientific (no survey) hunch is that we aren't really serving the adult athletes, but we've been doing a great job for the kids. If this is the case, then potentially your system of parks is helping out with that. I don't think that's inherently bad, as long as there is an equality of balance in what the citizens of the two cities are aware of and utilizing.

We are still looking toward finding a location for a pool. We have talked about the possibility of an alliance with any of the neighboring cities in creating a pool. Unofficially, I'm wondering what you think of that idea. I'm concerned that it could be piles of red tape to administer, but on the other hand it would be a relief to share the risk.

Our final struggle is expense of land inside the UGB and the fears of putting parks outside the UGB and invalidating the intention of that boundary.

On another note, I've gotten involved with a local conservation group in hopes that they will become strong allies in getting grants and so forth to add to our trails and parks. They've done a good job of that for the city of Lake Oswego, and they are a regional group looking to have a region wide view of green space. You might be interested in attending an introductory meeting to their organization next week. Other regional officials will be attending also to find out more. (David Bragden, Metro Council President and Tim Wood, Director of State Parks)

I'm hoping this can turn into a really good interface of public/private groups working toward more green space throughout the area. I've included the invitation to Three Rivers Land Conservancy meeting below.

I'm interested in hearing back from any of you. You can reach me at (503) 557-3351 or e-mail me back. This is an unofficial letter, I'm not representing the whole board, just trying to grow my own understanding of Parks & Recreation and our local area. Thanks again.

OREGON CITY PARKS & RECREATION

Parks & Recreation Monthly Report February 2005

Parks

- Spray fence lines, ballfields, shrub beds
- Install handicap signs at Carnegie
- Mowing routes started
- Community service finishes Cove Trail cleanup - starts cleanup of invasives in Old Canemah Park
- Entire crew attends spray. re-certification class
- Steve, Dennis and Richard/ attend irrigation classes
- Greg attends N.W. Maintenance Management School
- Repair irrigation on McLoughlin Promenade
- O.C. Construction Corps installs retaining wall and overlook deck at Hillendale
- Remove apple tree Hilltop Fire Station

Cemetery

- Sprayed shrub beds
- Mowing continues
- Leveled old headstones and sunken graves

Aquatics/O.C. Pool

- Online registration for swimming lessons now comprises about 25-30% of all lesson registrations
- The high school swimming season is over. The district meet was held February 11-12
- We are preparing for the annual CBSL swim meet on March 12-13. The meet brings hundreds of competitors and parents to the pool over the weekend

Carnegie

- Jan Rimverman's show was well received. Both private and public receptions were held.
- Many preschool classes visited the Children's Museum on field trips this month
- More people were out exploring due to the mild weather – the Carnegie Center has a lot of new visitors

- A book signing for author Lars Nordstrom was well attended

Pioneer

- Fund raising events – Bowl a thon.
- Brochure in process for rentals / marketing. Church group is planning to rent building every Sunday possibly beginning March 2005. They have also decided to rent every Wednesday evening for 2 hours.
- Julie had 2 trips this month – Max train to Hillsboro and Touring the covered bridges
- Julie had 4 dine outs. Average 10 – 16 people.
- Julie has attended the weekly chamber meetings.
- Glen Tadina's band continues to play old time swing dance songs every Wednesday. Participation has been between 70-80 people attending. This has been a very positive event bringing in seniors of varying ages. Glen donated 1 dance to the center.
- West Linn seniors to 2 dine outs, 1 potluck. 12-15 participants per trip
- Donations: $1080 for the pioneer donation fund, and $40 for meals on wheels
- Beth attended West Linn Seniors potluck.
- AARP tax assistance Tuesday and Friday each week until April 15.
- Quotes for heating replacement done.
- Freezer repairs made
- Coffee machine replaced
- Contact made with new AARP coordinator/other title V programmers
- Daddy daughter dinner dance held at the Pioneer center
- Meeting with coordinators of the art faire. Mini art faire to be held at Pioneer center in July
- Equipment issues –heat system remains out, computers are often down and exercise equipment breaks frequently

Recreation

- The first annual "Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance" was held at the Pioneer Center and drew about 100 people. The Valentine's Day themed event included dinner, dancing and entertainment for Dad's and their daughters.
- We are working closely with Sage, the District's alternative high school to develop a PE program for their students

Up Coming Events/ Dates of note:

Aquatics

- A lifeguard training course will be held during spring break

Carnegie

- March show will be Portland Handweavers Guild
- Spring classes begin in March
- Spring Trail News will be printed in March

Recreation

- We are partnering with Clackamas County, the Friends of OSU Extension and the Clackamas County Soil and Water Conservation District to organize a Farmer's Market, which will be held at the new County building on Saturdays from May 14 – October 1.

Pioneer

- Three Trips are planned for this month: Fort Vancouver, the Marysville Museum and a Rose Linn Care Center trip

Concerns and Challenges:

Carnegie

- Construction on 7th Street continues to be a problem. Co-operative advertising with other neighborhood businesses does bring in people to the Center
- Scheduling 2005 Concerts in the Park and the Fourth of July Celebration

Pioneer

- Building maintenance continues to be an issue since regular repairs are only completed two days per month.
- We need more reception area volunteers and more time to train them
- We are short on kitchen subs
- Need to continue recruiting Meals on Wheels volunteers to maintain the strength of the program
- Development of fund raising is time consuming, but we are getting up to speed by continuing to make contacts and develop events
- We recently lost an AARP kitchen volunteer
- Staff drivers have been off work frequently due to injuries. The resulting heavy use of subs is hard on the budget.

Oregon City Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee

Dear Advisory Committee,

At the general meeting of the McLoughlin Neighborhood Association held on January 6, 2005 the membership voted unanimously to pursue re-naming Senior Center Park to something more appropriate for the neighborhood in which it resides. Initial suggestions included McLoughlin Neighborhood Park. If the Advisory Committee agrees that the park can be renamed, we would submit name choices for your approval. It is our intent to gather suggestions from all areas of the City in this choice.

We are also interested in keeping open the idea of placing a monument stone in the park that would memorialize the late owner of B&B Leasing for his civic support of Oregon City. We have not had the opportunity as of yet to discuss this idea with the members of his family or the company.

We believe that the name Senior Center Park is no longer appropriate as the park has undergone a facelift and is more focused on young families. This is an exciting opportunity to make a positive change in our neighborhood and we would appreciate your support.

We look forward to moving ahead with this plan.
Thank you for your time.

Best Regards,

Tim Powell
Co-Chairman
McLoughlin Neighborhood Association

Subject: Ribbon cutting for our new van

The Pioneer Center will be hosting a ribbon cutting ceremony on April 22nd, at 2pm for our new Van. All of the sponsors who helped raise funds and contributed money will be invited to attend. The Oregonian will be on hand to snap some shots for the paper.

This van was paid for entirely by grants through Ride connection and fund raising by the Pioneer center staff. Generous donations came from local businesses.

None of the funds are coming from the city, budgets being tight and all. We will have coffee and goodies (also donated) so come if you are able!
