OREGON CITY PARKS & RECREATION Activity Report

Month of: April, 2002

Highlights of the past month:

Aquatics

- ◆ A group of 83 elementary school children with the 21st Century Learning Centers participated in a swimming pool party on April 12.
- ◆ We conducted Lifeguard Training courses over spring break with 18 participants. We have received many employment applications from the trainees.
- ◆ Two of the Aquatics staff will be attending a pool and spa operations workshop focusing, in part, on upcoming changes to the State Pool Operations Code.
- ◆ The Spring Brochure has filled our swimming lesson program. In fact, almost every class has a very large waiting list.
- ◆ Attendance was 8,500 for the Month of March.

Carnegie

- ◆ Carnegie Arts League Spring Tea tickets sold out (5 people on wait list, 3 on future tea list) money raised will help purchase a sound system.
- ◆ Children's Museum received a $500 donation from Evelyn Morlan.
- ◆ Preliminary re-landscaping of plants which were removed during the renovation has been completed. A volunteer from the McLoughlin Neighborhood Assoc. has developed a landscaping plan, which provides for full build out. Staff is reviewing this plan.
- ◆ 5 artists are juried into the Art Center.
- ◆ Carnegie art classes (painting and watercolor) and Open Studio going well.

Recreation

- ◆ Egg Hunt at Rivercrest was great success. Good weather and good turnout.
- ◆ Kids Day April 1st successful.
- ◆ Parent and Child classes are gaining popularity
- ◆ Yoga and Pilates (new form of fitness—like yoga) classes going well
- ◆ Spring brochure brought many positive responses

Cemetery

- ◆ 100 % drawings for Hilda Street fence completed. Pre-app meeting set.
- ◆ Fence line and beds have been sprayed for weeds.
- ◆ Fertilize of specific lawn areas
- ◆ Water is back on in the Cemetery for irrigation
- ◆ Sunrise Easter Service was held here for First Presbyterian Church

Parks

- ◆ Carnegie – preparation of planting beds started.
- ◆ Canemah picnic shelter approved
- ◆ Ivy removal at Waterboard Trail
- ◆ Seedlings planted at Abernathy Creek and Clackamette Park

Pioneer Community Center

- ◆ Facility use: Seniors = 1078; Community = 815; Transportation = 829; Volunteers = 182; Outreach requests = 2622
- ◆ Roof bids received
- ◆ New Blinds installed in lounge and offices
- ◆ Spring classes started
- ◆ New programs offered including group piano lessons and evening feng-shui classes.
- ◆ Coordinated program with Heartmasters offers heart monitoring for those at risk offered monthly.
- ◆ Positive benefits seen from inclusion in the Park and Recreation quarterly Activity Guide.

Administration

- ◆ Met with Hillendale and Park Place NA to finalize Metro Enhancement Grant applications
- ◆ HRB meeting regarding Canemah Park Shelter and Carnegie landscape plans
- ◆ County re: Canemah Park property
- ◆ School group on youth sports safety
- ◆ School District's 21 Century program on summer programming
- ◆ Cover Library meetings

Up Coming Events/Date of note:

Carnegie Center

- ◆ May 4th. Community Event involving historic sites will include plant sale, historic site tours and garden art.
- ◆ May 11, Spring Tea
- ◆ Artweek and Art Camps being planned for summer including an outdoor art fair in August.

Recreation/Administration

- ◆ Summer Activity Guide will be mailed late May with summer programs beginning June 24
- ◆ Summer Concert July 11- August 29

Name	Street	City	State	Zip	Phone	Park Name	Explanation
Andresen, Judy	15130 S. Maple Rd #11	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-723-6217	Ainsworth/Capitain Anisworth	When Oregon City was a young and most of this area was like one gigantic park like area on its top level, Captain Ainsworth built his large Oregon City estate a short distance from this new parks location. * One of this areas first steamboat captains to help bring supplies and people in to settle this area.
Blezinski, Kathy	17449 S. Redland Rd	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-631-2728	Jessie Court	It succintly and concisely provides the necessary information on where and what this park is.
Bond, Karen	14890 S. Forsythe Rd	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-655-2756	Howell Family	The Howell Family was part of OC History. I have permission from Marjorie Howell and am married to a direct descendant living in Oregon City. Marjorie was born in the Howell house. Marjorie walked over the big semi circles (Arches) on the Oregon City Bridge as a child when they put it up! (Note: Drawing on form)
Cayson, K.	19441 S. Vincent Dr	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-650-7970	Patriot Park	Dedicate it to the 9-11 victims and the sentiment of the country. You could place a big etched stone in tribute to vets and victims of 9-11.
Chandler, Stephanie	1840 Molalla Ave #16	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-723-7191	Inspiration Point	I chose this name for the park because every body deserves a place where peoples hopes and dreams can be inspired to be come true while being outdoors closer to nature and feeling state and happy as well.
Chapman, Norman J.	13316 S. Gaffney Ln	Oregon City	Oregon	97045		Canyon Summit	It is the summit from the canyon
Chrisman, Wendi	15541 S. Hill Valley Ln	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-650-6898	Glory	This name would be retrospect of the events on 9/11/01, but, would signify new growth in Oregon City despite national tragedy. The term "Glory" is the name "Glory" defines the livability and desirability of Oregon City. This park would be identified as the new home to "Glory" days for future generations with remembrance to past generations that made this park possible.
Cody, Jane	P.O. Box 851	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-969-3241	Pioneer	I know, original isn't it?
Cody, Jane	P.O. Box 851	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-969-3241	Frontier Family	"Pioneers" are Oregon City. Family is what this Park should be about.
Cody, Jane	P.O. Box 851	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-969-3241	Frontier	"Pioneers" crossed the "Frontier" to establish Oregon City.
Coffman, Anita	1023 Linn Ave	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-655-6526	Freedom	It just seems appropriate at this time.
Cooper, Donna M.	1840 Molalla Ave Apt 92	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-722-5176	Grand View	The wide open spaces of enjoying & seeing the mountains, canyon & wildlife
Dale, Matt & Emily	13166 Frontier Parkway	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-655-0325	Liberty	September 11,2002
Farero, Bonita	1507 9th St #17	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-656-6386	Gaddis Pond	In memory of the teenage girls (Ashley & Miranda) . Regardless of the outcome, we need to be more vigilant & involved with our teens as a community whole.
Hargitt, Nancy	19591 S. Kalal Ct	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-656-8934	Meadow Lark	We've lived next to park area 21yrs and there have always been meadowlarks. Also it is our state bird. It's a catchy name too!
Herdon, Dolores	19528 S. McCord Rd	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-656-9484	Meier Lee	It is intersect with Mayer Rd and Leland and represent the Neighborhood.
Huddleston, Vicki	13192 Gaffney Ln.	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-518-7846	Settlement	Oregon City represents the history and settlement of Oregon
Johnsen, Dennis	820 Taylor St.	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-657-2981	Pioneer	All Oregonians are pioneers. Oregon High Schoolers are pioneers. We all have the pioneer spirit
Kelly, Mark	P.O. Box 176	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-655-6445	Homestead	In memory of the Pioneers that settled Oregon City

Kr... 3, Marcy	15622 S. Old Acres Lane	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-657-1505	Firefighter	I think it is obvious ...

Lockman, Eleanor	437 Alderwood Pl	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-656-7237	Oregon Holly	When I was young a lady wrote a nice song about Oregon Grape & Oregon Holly. Her name was Eva Emery Dye. I still would like to know who she was at the time, I wasn't very old at the time. E.L.
Mathews, Tio	13132 Clairmont Way	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-650-0475	Hilltop	It sounds like an attractive name for families to spend time on this several acre property. I'm a kid and feel proud to say I live "Hilltop" Oregon City.
McGinnis, Deborah	415 Center St	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-657-6223	The Oregon Trail	I think it has a good sound to it. I think it rolls of the tongue well. It's part of the Oregon trail up that way.
Orchard, Arthur	13273 Eastborne Dr	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-657-7438	Noble Wood	Name related to area
Osgood, Dee	18635 Cook St	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-655-0927	Freedom's	To remind us we are free. What a nice place to go and feel free to enjoy it. Oregon is a place that is beautiful as well as Oregon City. Lets show pride in what we have. It is a great place to be with.
Solana, David	211 Lawton Rd	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-557-9005	Happy Trails Playground	Oregon City, is the end of the Oregon trail, and we'll bring over kids there to get them happy.
Schmitt, Tommy	P.O. Box 1472	Oregon City	Oregon	97045		Tomanowos	The name Tomanowos comes from the tribes of Grande Ronde- given to the sacred meteorite found in Oregon ( the largest discovered in the U.S.) People go to parks to have, fun-and it's a fun name in our history and spirit.
Union, family	724 Division St	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-656-1838	The Hope Freedom	May we never lose hope and remember those who gave their lives for our freedom.
Victoria, Rebecca	19398 Prospector Terrace	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-518-8000	Pioneer	My family came to Oregon City on the Oregon trail in 1846 they were the "Post" family. I feel that this name would honor those who made the trip and those who passed to make a new life in Oregon City. It would be an honorable dedication to those who gave up so much, they were the founders of our community.
Wadsworth, Chris	344 Holmes Ln	Oregon City	Oregon	97045	503-656-1724	Ainsworth	Because in 1851 Captain John C. Ainsworth built his Greek Revival mission on 18 acres near the proposed park. He was the Captain of the largest steamer built on the Willamette River- "The lot Whitcomb."
