Subject: PRAC mtg cancelled tonight

The Parks & Recreation Advisory Committee is cancelled tonight due to the inclement weather today, which is expected to continue through the evening. I will discuss with Bryan Watt whether we will look to reschedule this meeting. Also, the March 24th meeting happens to fall on the week of spring break for the local schools. This may impact some of the members' personal schedules, affecting availability. I would be interested to know from each member if this date will cause a conflict. If this is the case for multiple members, we will likely consider rescheduling the March meeting to another date.

Will you please respond if you've received this notice so we know you are aware of the meeting cancellation tonight.

Thank you,

---
